

Matt Younkle

Matt is a successful serial entrepreneur. He owns and manages several software companies, including Move Counselors, LLC and Pythonic Corporation. Move Counselors develops a platform that connects relocating employees to trusted partners in order to get moved faster, easier, and on budget. Pythonic develops machine learning technologies that automate insurance underwriting and claims workflows.

Prior to Move Counselors and Pythonic, Matt co-founded murfie.com, a music streaming platform, and marketplace. He's the inventor of the TurboTap, a device that pours draft beer faster and with less waste that's used in pubs and stadiums worldwide. Prior to TurboTap, he helped pioneer streaming audio and video on the web at Vosaic, and he developed technology that grew the first food in space onboard the Space Shuttle Columbia.

Matt has received product-of-the-year honors from Popular Science and TIME Magazine. He has degrees in Electrical Engineering and Computer Science from the University of Wisconsin and is a recipient of the University's Entrepreneurial Achievement Award.
